

Alternative energy solutions and energy efficiency with multiple energy solutions – A feasibility study on a collaboration model between OUC and BJTU Information searching, analyzing and recommending a matched collaboration approach combining OUC and BJTU existing research groups and competence Result expectations: Recommending, conceptualizing and planning a thematic based collaboration project model combining available research competences from current OUC and BJTU teams.